QCWA HISTORY

It all began during a 10-meter round table one Friday night in November 1947. Six of the members decided they should form an organization of Amateur Radio operators who had been licensed for more than 25 years.

The initial organizational meeting was held December 5, 1947 in a restaurant in midtown New York City. Thirty-four old-timers attended. John DiBlasi, W2FX, was elected President; George Droste, W2IN, Vice-president; Leon Hansen, W2FIT, Secretary and David Talley, W2PF, Treasurer. Frank Lester, W2AMJ (W4AMJ) proposed the name of the organization. The logo was developed from a cartoon in a 1923 QST accompanying an article "ROTTON QRM", written by "The Old Man" himself, Hiram Percy Maxim. Otto Eppers, W2EA, a commercial artist, made some minor modifications to the drawing, added some sparks and the letters "QCWA", and the QCWA logo was born.

Membership grew rapidly within the first month and when the rolls were closed on December 31, 1947, there were 54 Charter members:

ACTIVE QCWA CHAPTERS

A great deal of growth and dynamic character of QCWA is a direct result of the Chapters chartered across the continent and across the world. Our Chapters support QCWA activities and make it possible to enjoy the fellowship of old-timers without driving long distances to attend meetings. The first Chapter was formed in 1951 and the last one in 2004, some 50 years later.

The Chapters are self governing, making an annual report to the National organization, and they operate in substantial agreement with the National Constitution and By-Laws. Through the active help of our Chapters and At-Large members, the QCWA Memorial Scholarship Fund continues to grow. This is one of our greatest activities. Through the help of our members we obtain great participation in QCWA activities.

Chapters are assigned numbers issued on the basis of their charter dates. Those numbers are continued for the Chapter even though the Chapter may become inactive. Some of the formerly inactive Chapters have been reactivated and some have even changed their names. The following list is of current, active Chapters. At the moment there are several inactive Chapters being reorganized.

QCWA DIRECTORY OF MEMBERS

This QCWA Membership Directory is the 25th such volume printed.

As in the past issues, professional titles and designations have been omitted. All make-up was done on QCWA equipment. dBase IV, FileMaker Pro and Adobe InDesign were the software programs used. Each call zone was treated as a separate group so that calls could be properly sorted. All members who were in good standing as of June 30, 2005 have been included.

These InDesign and FileMaker files were then saved as pdf (Acrobat) files. This whole Directory will be placed on the Home Page for your use. A different font is used with this issue which will allow searches for "cancelled zero" call signs (Ø) to be entered directly. No special codes are needed.

The listings in this Directory are as follows: the first line lists the Call, Name, Membership number, year first licensed and chapter number (if any) and indication of Life Membership (L). The second line lists the street address and the third line lists the City, State/Province and ZIP code/Postal code.

International members are listed alphabetically by Country followed by the usual member information as detailed above.

CREDITS

Printing and mailing costs have dictated publishing the Membership Directory in this format to be 'read' by Adobe Acrobat Reader and for the Directory to be placed on the Home Page.

Copies of the Constitution and By-Laws are included in this Membership Directory reflect the current updated versions.

All work to bring the data base up to date has been done by the Headquarters staff. This includes Chuck Walbridge, K1IGD, and Janet Walbridge. The general format of this Membership Directory has been carefully continued from our last issue so that we will preserve the same format as much as possible. It should be noted, however, that some programs used in previous issues of this directory were not available after the office relocation. While the format may look different, all the same information is included. Headquarters is evaluating optional software to provide the same format as previous issues. The opening page is a design by W5EJ. If there are any errors or omissions we apologize. My thanks to the Board of Directors for their support and assistance.
